Elliot,

Thanks for the update.

All sounds good.

My only concern is that the notice of appeal that I filed is still sitting out there, needing correction, so I don't want to blow any deadlines for filing a correction, if that is a course you pursue. But I'm sure you have taken that into account.

Again, if you need anything else from me, just let me know.

Peter,

Sam and I went over some ideas as to how to proceed. At this point we need to review the summary judgment papers more thoroughly before we file anything. Then (probably early next week) we will file the notice of appearance. Once we file, the bullets start flying and we need to be ready to make a motion, serve and respond to discovery, etc.

We will keep you updated.
